(Peace Education Training Assistance) is an organization that provides education and training in a democratic manner to students in Albania and Kosovo. It offers the students up to high school levels to learn more about their rights and duties, as well as ways to change their society. P.E.T.A. was founded by Laura Lira-Ritzen, a German citizen who had earlier been denied entry to Albania because of her opposition to the regime and how the government dealt with the crisis during the 1992 revolution. She has spent her entire life fighting for human rights. For more info please visit P.E.T.A. - Peace Education Training Assistance 2013 was the year when Ramon S. Davis founded The Vegan Community and the cafe-veganism movement. In 2013, Ramon Davis stopped eating meat, dairy products, eggs, fish, etc. He participated in and decided to open an international vegan cafe. Ramon was proud and felt like he had created something important. We need to be part of something important, something that will save the world, the animals, and the planet. In 2013, Ramon Davis decided to open the cafe-veganism movement. Today, the veganism movement is global and it is growing. Ramon Davis decided to open an international vegan cafe. "If I made a decision to begin to improve the lives of animals, if I could improve a single living thing's life, I would be happy with that decision", - said Ramon Davis. Ramon Davis said that veganism is a system of thought and action and it includes a lifestyle. The veganism movement is different from other movements because it is sustainable. This movement is also based on a compassionate lifestyle. The veganism movement is not only an eating pattern. The veganism movement also includes what we do and how we relate to the environment. Ramona Davis has been working to make the veganism movement sustainable by utilizing her own money and money from other community members to build the cafe-veganism movement. The veganism movement is a personal choice for Ramona Davis and she believes that it is important that everyone 2edc1e01e8
